Dear Friends,
We send you many greetings from our volunteers in Rwanda and from all of us here in Holland.

First of all we want to thank everyone who has donated money to the foundation these last months for all the projects.

In March Marjan was in Rwanda to, among others; hand over the key to Leberatha. See picture of her new house above.

Marjan handing over the key of the new house to Leberatha Mukandutiye.

We were happily surprised to see Leberatha being able to smile for the First time since the genocide 19 years ago.

Leberatha gives a present to Marjan in return.

In our previous newsletter we told the story about Leberatha Mukandutiye. 19 years ago during the genocide the house in which she was hiding was burned down by the murderers. Her family died there but she survived through a miracle but with severe burn wounds. This caused that she lost certain abilities. She was not able to continue her basic schooling education anymore. When I spoke to her she asked me if we can help her. Thanks to your support we could build a house for her where she can now live in.

Helping Leberatha Mukandutiye;

Sadly enough all gifts were not enough to be able to also buy the Furniture for the house of Leberatha and her daughter. (See picture above) This will cost about €500 and we also want to pay for her basic education which will cost €90 per year and we want to help her to start her own business at a cost of €1000. We hope that you can help us with these projects by donating money. We want to thank you in advance for your support.

Another project which we are working on now is paying the school fees and materials for 64 AIDS-orphans. For the students between 2006 and 2010 we have started courses to help those children to get a more specific education so they can learn a trade for them to find a job fast.

At this moment we offer a driving license course, a catering course and a computer course. Until now we have educated 12 youth with these courses. We want to do the same every 2 years to teach these courses. We are now ready to give a driving license course and a catering course which will cost €2500.

We hope you are able to donate money for this project. In advance we want to thank you for your gift.
